Welcome to Alabama Farmers Federation

For more than 100 years, Alabama Farmers Federation members have benefited from the organization's work to support agriculture, accountable government, education, rural development and our core values of faith, family, integrity and community.

In addition, members enjoy access to personal service and affordable coverage from Alfa Insurance, which the Federation founded more than 75 years ago.

Today, Federation members also can save on a variety of products and services we use every day. By partnering with local business and national brands, the Federation is able to offer discounts not available to other customers.

From savings at hometown restaurants and stores to special offers on equipment and travel, there's something for every member of your family.

This Member Perks booklet is a quick guide to some of the Federation's more popular benefits. Inside, you'll find information about savings for air medical transport services; apparel; Ford trucks and automotive needs; banking; car rentals; hotels and theme parks; home security; farm and lawn equipment; business supplies; telemedicine; and more.

You'll also learn how to access even more benefits using the Alfa Perks phone app or online at AlfaFarmers.org/perks.

We hope you'll take advantage of everything your membership has to offer. Thank you for being part of the Alabama Farmers Federation as we continue our mission to support local farmers and improve the quality of life for all Alabamians.

This is what claims satisfaction looks like

Meet Rachel. Rachel has Alfa Insurance. Now, it doesn't look like she's too worried about things like claim status or policy details, does it? Nope. She's out there living her best life while someone else sweats the small stuff. She's storming the field, drenching her foes and making it rain for her comrades. Why? Because Rachel's got priorities, that's why.
