

Alabama Farmers Federation Outstanding Young Farm Family Award

Rules for 2022 Competitive Event

Background

Each year the State Young Farmers Committee, along with the Young Farmers Division, sponsors the Outstanding Young Farm Family program in order to recognize young farm families and farmers between the ages of 18 and 35. The goal of this program is to recognize those who are doing an outstanding job on their farm, in their home and commodity activities and are working to promote a better understanding of agriculture within the urban population. Alfa Farmers and county commodity divisions also assist in the selection and honoring of the young farmers and farm families on the county level. Selection of the winning competitor is based on his/her efforts in production agriculture and leadership achievement. Participation in this program with individual recognition and the resulting publicity will help build the organization. The ideal candidate(s) for the Outstanding Young Farm Family competition is an individual or couple involved in production agriculture with a majority of their income subject to normal production risks. The winner from Alabama's program will compete at the American Farm Bureau Annual Meeting held in San Juan, Puerto Rico in January 2023.

Judging

- The entry form and application will be coded upon receipt. The applicant's name and county will not be revealed to the judges until judging is completed.
- First round judging is based on the application and the interview during the Young Farmers Conference.
- Prior to the Young Farmers Conference (to be held March 4-6) three judges will score your application. Applicants will then be interviewed on Friday, March 4. The families with the top three scores (combined score of interview and application judging) will be announced as finalists.
- In mid-July, a different set of three judges will visit the finalists' operations and select a state winner. The winner will be announced at the 2022 Farm & Land Expo and will be recognized at the Annual Meeting held in Montgomery in December 2022.
- Each applicant will be asked to select the commodity their farm focuses on most. After the score sheets are received back from the judges, the highest ranking entry in each commodity division will be announced as that commodity division winner. This will have no bearing on the top three finalists for the overall contest as the top three finalists are the top three scorers overall no matter what commodity they may have entered.
- Interviews will be up to 20 minutes in length and are intended to clear up any "gray areas" which may arise from the written application. Competitors should understand that their interview is for verification/clarification purposes and therefore may affect final rankings.
- During the interview process, only the named applicant(s) on the entry form is permitted into the interview. We encourage you not to take your children into the interview as they can easily become a distraction to both you and the judges.
- Values used in judging the applications will be:
